The course is organized as a weekly learning group with a Society For Ethical Culture Institute (Chicago, IL). The Society For Ethical Culture Institute is a not-for-profit organization based in Chicago, Illinois with roots going back to 1846. Ethical Culture is a philosophy of life that teaches right living, right thinking, and right acting in the context of a religious faith. Our nation has a long tradition of religious pluralism, where people of many different faiths can worship according to their own values and beliefs. Nowadays, however, there is increased tendency for people to become more insular, limiting themselves to a single faith. This course on Ethical Culture promotes a philosophy of life that is not only right thinking and right acting, but right living, too. Using the structure of the Church of the Saviour of Korea, the instructor will lead participants in practical and theoretical discussions about Ethical Culture. Participants will also take part in community service activities designed to make the community more just and equitable. Society For Ethical Culture Institute (Chicago, IL).
