Reviews Note Organizer Deluxe 3.0.0.0 review by PCMag: "The Organizer Deluxe 3.0.0.0, for Windows, is a new version of the Organizer Deluxe, a database program that uses a note and task organizer to help you keep your life organized. This program can organize multiple types of data such as to-do lists, notes, journals, addresses, images, and Web pages. The Organizer Deluxe allows for multiple users to use a single database. You can store data in any combination of database fields and files. The Organizer Deluxe is similar to other database programs such as Microsoft Access. When new data is added to an Organizer database, it automatically sorts the data and adds it to the appropriate categories." Features Note Organizer Deluxe 3.0.0.0 review on Softpedia: "Note Organizer Deluxe 3 is a database application with a rather complex graphical interface which provides a great variety of tools for organizing a wide range of information. It enables you to create, organize, backup, modify and print or export notes in a database, and to keep its contents in sync with other sources. Its main advantage is its database integration with another type of programs and services; for instance, it can synchronize and integrate notes with various social networking websites, allow you to edit notes within a browser, access your notes in a Web site, and so on."
