In the year 2035, creatures called "Monster" have overrun the planet Earth. The number of people killed by these "Monster" is unknown, but believed to be in the millions. A corporation called Global Defense Force (G.D.F) has taken charge of the effort of hunting and eradicating the monsters. However, the G.D.F. consists of the best human fighter pilots with the skills of "Monster War", and a team of self-sacrificing robot manipulators, called Rescue Team. Little did anyone know that one day this "Monster War" would start up again, and half a century later, the forces of good would prove to be completely overpowered. Game Overview: In the year 2035, mankind is on the brink of extinction. The Earth has become home to packs of wild monsters that prey on humans. In the hopes of finding a way to end the slaughter, a new breed of aliens - known as Gloomcast - comes to Earth, wielding incredible power and granting enormous gifts in exchange for surrender. The government, desperate to placate the aliens, sends in the G.D.F. - a special defense force made up of the best human fighter pilots and a team of self-sacrificing robot manipulators, known as the Rescue Team. Little did anyone know that the hunting and eradication of the monsters would start up again, and half a century later, the forces of good would prove to be completely overpowered. "Decent playing time. Challenging to beat each level in gold time. Interesting setting. Nice House-restoring mini-game." In this remake of the great arcade game, you'll go head to head with other players as you race through the crowds and jump over giant cranes. Race your opponents in an epic climactic race to the finish line. Complete Speed Records: • 0.9 • 1.0 • 1.2 • 2.3 • 2.7 • 3.3 • 4.5 • 5.1 • 7.3 • 11.5 Power Ups: • A variety of power up icons will be displayed in the score window. Cycle To Win This track is a race to the finish line, and you'll be rewarded for your efforts with an A.I. that becomes less and less forgiving as you keep speeding through crowds of spectators. Score Limit: Unfortunately, there is no score limit on this track - so try and set a few high scores or possibly a world record! The game has been remade from the ground up, and includes a new graphical presentation, improved physics and a detailed track design. Comments And Ratings for Devil Riders Do you own Devil Riders? The Dawnfall crew is known for their ability to help people navigate between dimensions, so you'll be joining that crew to help steer a wounded ship of magic, technology, and rock'n'roll through a dangerous sea of pirate-infested space. You might soon find yourself romancing, or not, as your choices influence the course of your life and the lives of the crew of the Dawnfall. One of those crew members could be that person you're looking for, but so could they be the next person who is out to hurt you or the next shipmate who you fall in love with. It's a sidequel to Visions of Violets, and also a prequel to Visions of Boys. Who You Are: You are a Navigator, one who creates and guards portals from one dimension to another, wary of the liminal sea between them. You are a miner of magic and technology, a person who uses technology to navigate spaces, and tech to fight the good fight. When you look at the world around you, you see beauty, wonder, wonder, and just maybe, love. You are very good with technology. You can dance your way through the ship's labyrinth of pipes, and hack your way through systems with finesse, speed, and style. You can hide and encrypt your data, and hack and lock systems for those who can't. You are a warrior. You fight monsters when you need to, or sometimes just to avoid having to fight them. You can create and conjure your own magic, and work magic on others to fight enemies. You can win fights with lightning, with steel, or even with your mind. You are a citizen. You're a gardener, a farmer, a teacher, a cobbler, or a baker. You spend your time creating things, nurturing it, feeding your plants, making meals and pies. You sometimes make robots to make things better, or build rockets to explore the skies. You love your garden, even if it is crazy hot, and lovely. You are a free-spirited wanderer. You make your own rules, and you have no desires for many possessions. You are free to go where you want, be who you want, and do what you want. You can travel between dimensions by mending the broken. Your home is the night sky, and the touch of your hand can heal a wound.
