The so-called, Faraday Tensor is an object of three indices whose values are the vectors themselves. This object was introduced by Michael Faraday in 1831. The aim of this article is to study the mathematical properties and applications of this object. Rights Statement Copyright (C) 1991 William's University. Imbalance between the cholinergic and dopaminergic system in early Parkinson's disease. Parkinson's disease (PD) is a common age-dependent neurodegenerative disorder characterized by progressive dopaminergic (DA) degeneration in the nigrostriatal system. Increasing evidence indicate that there are also impairments in the cholinergic system in this disorder. However, there is little information about the DA-cholinergic interaction in PD. We measured DA and acetylcholine (ACh) in the brain using HPLC in 12 PD patients, compared with their age-matched controls. DA metabolites were analyzed in the left and right putamen and the left and right caudate nucleus, while DA and ACh in the left putamen and the left and right nucleus accumbens were quantified only in PD patients. We found higher DA levels in the left putamen and the left nucleus accumbens in patients than in age-matched controls. Both DA and ACh levels were increased in the left and right putamen and the left and right nucleus accumbens in PD patients. No differences were found in DA in the left and right caudate nucleus between PD patients and controls. In conclusion, there was an imbalance in the DA-cholinergic system in early PD.1. Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a hot-water supply system of an air conditioner, and more particularly to an apparatus and method for controlling a hot-water supply temperature of an air conditioner.

I would like this login screen to be as minimalistic as possible, and also secure. I know the library what I'm gonna use is either SQLite or Firebase. If someone could explain or refer me to some material on login screens (I've read a lot on this topic), I'll be grateful. If it's really important I'll look at the material myself, but I'd prefer something short. The screen contains only 1 "button" and 1 "label", and a login/password text field. If the login/password text field is entered with an incorrect password, a "Login failed" text is shown. This text should not be shown again as long as the password field is not changed.
