Reference link: What is the file type.DOC Update: On Windows 10, you can download Microsoft Office Viewer for free from the Start Menu: I think this might be the first thing I would say to our neighbors if they came and asked about fracking: "No, no, no, we don't." Just cause, y'know, we have too much democracy in this country. Rather, it's one of the few issues I have found myself against across the spectrum. I think, along with the opposite, that our form of government is the best in the world, but I'm also concerned about the level of discourse in our country right now. I think it's much too easy to spread rumors, exaggerate and truly misrepresent the opposition's position, and to that degree I have been guilty of it as well, but I've also had things fall into my lap I just never expected, and that's another matter. Let's face it, if we ever have our own municipality, and not only don't the residents want fracking, but everyone yells, "Run, run, run! Our water! Our welfare!" that really isn't going to be a flattering image of our community to other potential residents or investors, or potential employers, or potential visitors of any kind. I don't care if there's one small instance of a place in another community, or a big one in a larger, more populated, more powerful municipality saying, "Hey, we really don't want fracking going on here," those facts will have a
