yes, but not in the deep format. yes, you can enjoy in windows movie maker, final cut x, etc. but, in that case, they should be unique movies for those versions of windows where movie maker, final cut, etc. not installed. what car is that other than the sports car from the movie? what car has no front engine and back engine?. actually there are only 6 cars, 6 models. they can be identified by name of their wheels too. i'm assuming, i'm right? will they be 4 cylinder? or 6 cylinder? will be a manual or auto?, the engines do not replace the old engine, but it adds a new engine to the car. am i right?, there are other new kind of motors. i think like the formula e motor from the movie? i'm not sure. will there be a manual transmission or an automatic transmission, and so on?, yes, those are the most important things to see! we got them all. i think all the cars will be included. but since they have not put the entire list yet, i cannot say for sure, just don't want to spoil the surprise. i think all of those cars they have chosen to include, the only thing they are not including is the tri-truck. they are including the camaro, jaguar f-type, ferrari 488gtb, porsche 911 and the mclaren 720s, i think that's it. in the movie it will be the camaro, the mclaren and the porsche. (mazda mps-zx5 (japan) and porsche cayman gt4)... for this new franchise, they decided to make new races, specifically in arizona (america) and bahrain (middle east), it's now the second time they are doing this. in the previous movie, where the lightning mcqueen and sally are at the red bull ring in austria, the cars that raced there were the camaro, the mclaren and the porsche. i guess that race will be in arizona and bahrain. the ferrari will be making a cameo since tony and zeeshan were also there.
